

*Technical Difficulties Stall
Newsletter Chair Transition*

Our very capable and beloved Newsletter Chair, Tatiana E., stepped down from service with production of the July 2008 issue of EVI News. She and her infant son are currently enjoying two months in Russia visiting family. Thank you for your faithful and excellent service, Tatiana!

Multiple computer decisions, along with the necessity of learning a new program, have hampered efforts toward timeliness by our incoming newsletter co-chairs, Sally B. and Angela M. (not to mention that Angela's arm was severely broken in a nasty bicycle accident just as the chair transition was about to take place.)

We ask your patience as you bear with us under these trying circumstances. While Angela and Sally endeavor to master a new computer program, this bare-bones issue of EVI News is being presented as a stop-gap measure for August. Hopefully, a full-meal-deal will again be issued in September.

Thank you for your support and understanding!
